No. 56 of 1903-04

Enclosure No. one

Has the honor to forward herewith, for sanction, and transmission to the Comptroller for audit, the travelling allowance bill of the Special Inam Assistant's office for the month of January 1903. The delay in submitting the bill was owing to the matter having been under correspondence and to the alleged miscarriage of a letter returning the bill from this office to the Assistant.

No. 61. of 1903-04

Enclosure No. one

His docket No. P and A 722 of the 3rd November 1903, returning for resubmission with explanation for the long halt at Ulavi on Government duty the travelling allowance bill on behalf of M. Tirumalachar, clerk on the establishment of the Special Assistant Inam Superintendent for January 1903 for Rs 9

In resubmitting herewith the bill, has the honor to state that the functions of both the Survey and Inam Assistant were combined in one, and the same officer. He halted at Ulavi for his Survey work, during which period he also did the Inam duty of classifying &c. the Inam lands belonging to the Sringeri Jahagir. Hence the necessity for
